MASTER IN LAW

Program Name: LL.M.（Master of Laws）Program in Chinese Law

Law School

INTRODUCTION

Beijing Normal University Law School was inaugurated on April 26, 2006, based on the original Law Department. The Law School provides Master degree programs in all sub-majors of law including LL.M.（Master of Laws）Program in Chinese Law, and Doctoral degree programs. The Law School boasts a faculty with outstanding strength, including 42 professors and 32 associate professors among nearly 90 full-time teachers. Full-time teachers with high level of domestic and foreign University doctoral degree account for 100%. The Law School also has many international links and partnership programs with leading universities and legal institutions around the world.

With China's rapid economic growth and growing presence on the world stage, the knowledge of Chinese law has become an essential resource for international students and legal professionals engaged with China. Beijing Normal University Law School has established the LL.M. Program in Chinese Law to address the needs of an international community seeking a comprehensive and systematic understanding of Chinese law from a first-rate legal institution.

This program provides an intensive instruction in Chinese law. Leading faculty members will offer Chinese law courses specially designed for international students. Teaching will comprise of both lectures and small-group seminars. Additionally, Beijing Normal University regularly attracts top scholars and practitioners in Chinese law and students will have first-hand access to such distinguished presenters. There are also optional subjects in non-law areas such as politics, economy and society to facilitate students' understanding of China's culture. Furthermore, the program will organize visits to judicial authorities and legal institutions, giving students the opportunity to observe China's legal system in practice. Through face-to-face exchanges with judges, lawyers, prosecutors, and other legal professionals, students will gain firsthand insight into legal procedures and professional practice. These unique experiences will deepen their understanding of Chinese law beyond the classroom.

All courses of this program are taught in English, aiming at cultivating high-level international professional talents with good professional basis and understanding of Chinese society and culture.
